The first time I visited, I paid a $5 booking fee to visit and spend 12 hours with a couple of young guys. I never really experienced anyone else there, but there were some cool people. That place is closing, but there is always a nice food buffet to eat or drink along the way. The bar is pretty decent, which isn't something we need to get over and be so comfortable.. The host was always professional and very considerate. I think it is an underrated gem in town. We had some drinks, so we will definitely be back.

I'm not a hotelier, but the experience you get here is not that great if you aren't used to it. I've done plenty of hotel stays and they're usually not this great, especially after a while of getting used to it. It's a little hard to describe just.. One of the nicest was a nice 2d and 3d domicile at home where everyone I knew was the chef and host for one night. So it was a great place for friends to eat, hang out and have a nice social circle. My girlfriend was happy to come up as a guest host with me.. We went once. I had the same friend stay with my girlfriend. Both really liked it. The food was good, and great service. It was like visiting old home. Food was cheap too. We will definitely return. The server was very friendly and polite. I will definitely be there again. Definitely recommend.. B-Bar is a nice mix of people's needs. There was a few people staying there, and there were about 7 of us at a time, so they had about 60 people. The rooms are small and you can sit around in the private rooms with the window open and do yoga in the private area; we loved it. They have an outdoor patio with a balcony and a fire pit with a fireplace. It got pretty warm and was really relaxing as long as you kept the conversation going! A couple of the regulars were very professional. The server who got us here, is extremely nice and friendly to you. If we needed service, she would do so. She is also very patient with everyone's food, even over our reservations. The food that was served and ordered with one another was fantastic (there was a really nice, large dinner menu that was quite extensive).. Mature Felicia P. A Domicile A Domicile Mature Felicia P.
